

I am opposing the weakening of Indiana's law. Because the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. If successful, anybody that you currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call you as often as they want. Over an eighteen month period, that could translate to over 800,000,000 more unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents. Please consider this as the voice of the consumers.
